This dual-purpose heifer has all the makings of a fine brood cow—feminine, length, ample size and natural thickness. Her dam is one of the most modern cows I have ever seen, producing the top-selling Polled Shorthorn bull at Denver last year, selling to DeBusk & Tribbett, New Market, Indiana. If it weren't because our herd must be reduced would we part with a female of this caliber. Stood fourth in a class of 35 spring yearlings at the 1975 Indiana State Fair.
